1. The first of these is the fact that the theology of the Bible is not a static system of dogmas, but a living, growing tradition which has been shaped by the experience of the people of God.

2. The second is the fact that the Bible is not a book of laws, but a book of promises. It is a book which tells us what God has done for his people, and what he promises to do for them in the future.

3. The third is the fact that the Bible is not a book of abstract speculation, but a book of concrete experience. It is a book which tells us what God has done for his people in the past, and what he promises to do for them in the future.
